

Story for GEMENI

Ravi loved selling mangoes from the tree in his backyard. He set up a small stall every morning and waited for customers with a smile.

One day, a man in a hurry bought some mangoes and accidentally dropped his wallet near the stall. Ravi noticed it after the man had left.

Instead of keeping the wallet, Ravi ran after the man and returned it. The man was so thankful that he came back the next day with his whole family to buy more mangoes.

From then on, Ravi's honesty became famous in his town, and more people came to buy his fruits.

Moral: Honesty is always rewarded.

cartoon style Prompts

Scene 1: Cheerful boy selling ripe mangoes from a small backyard stall under a mango tree, morning sunlight, smiling at customers.

Scene 2: Man in a hurry accidentally dropping his wallet near the small mango stall, boy noticing it, sunny day.

Scene 3: Young boy running to return a dropped wallet to a surprised man, happy expressions, bright town street.

Scene 4: Happy family buying mangoes from the small stall, boy serving fruits with a smile, morning sunlight.

Scene 5: Boy behind a busy mango stall, many townspeople buying fruits, cheerful storybook style, bright sunny day, showing his honesty is rewarded.

Story 1: Meena and the Lost Puppy

One minute story

Meena loved playing near her house every evening. One day, she found a small lost puppy crying near the road.

Instead of ignoring it, she picked it up and searched for its owner. After asking around, she found the puppy's home.

The owner was very happy and thanked Meena. The next day, the puppy came back to play with her.

Soon, everyone in the neighborhood appreciated her kindness.

Moral: Kindness always finds its way back to you.

Cartoon Style Prompts

Scene 1: Young girl playing happily near her house, evening sunlight, simple village street, cheerful mood.

Scene 2: Small lost puppy sitting near the road, looking sad, girl noticing it, warm lighting.

Scene 3: Girl carrying the puppy and asking people around, friendly neighborhood, bright colors.

Scene 4: Girl returning the puppy to a happy owner, smiles and gratitude, soft sunlight.

Scene 5: Puppy playing with the girl, neighbors smiling, joyful and colorful storybook style.

Story 2: Arjun and the Broken Window

Arjun was playing cricket with his friends near his house. Suddenly, the ball hit a neighbor's window and broke it.

His friends ran away, but Arjun stayed back. He went to the neighbor and admitted his mistake. Instead of getting angry, the neighbor appreciated his honesty.

Later, Arjun helped fix the window and learned a valuable lesson.

Moral: Taking responsibility makes you stronger.

Cartoon Style Prompts

Scene 1: Boy playing cricket with friends on a street, bright sunny day, energetic mood.

Scene 2: Cricket ball breaking a window, shocked expressions, glass cracking effect.

Scene 3: Other kids running away while one boy stands thinking, slightly worried face.

Scene 4: Boy apologizing to a kind neighbor, calm and understanding expressions.

Scene 5: Boy helping fix the window, smiling neighbor, positive and warm storybook style.